

KU Courses Taught in English for 2013 Fall Semester

Center for International Students & Scholars
Office of International Affairs

Course Information (2013 Fall Semester)

Korea University offers various courses in English in numerous academic fields for both domestic students and international students. Such courses taught in English have greatly benefited local students by exposing them to an international learning environment and enhancing their international communications skills. Also, international students have gained insight and knowledge about Korea in a more convenient class environment.

Exchange students are entitled to take as many as courses as domestic KU students. For those international students with insufficient Korean skills for regular Korean courses, the university offers a number of courses in English in various disciplines at the undergraduate and graduate levels as follows:

Undergraduate Level (Major Courses)

The lists below are the undergraduate courses offered in English this semester.

The latest course lists and detailed information such as course description syllabuses are available at www.korea.edu > ACADEMICS > CURRICULUM > Undergraduate Major or Undergraduate Elective.

Korean Language Courses

1 credit is usually equivalent to 1 hour class per week; however, Korea courses may require more class hours than their credits. Students are required to attend for 1 & 1/4 hour lectures per week (6 hours a week in total). Those who would like to take Korean courses are asked to register for the course first in the level you think you are in and take the level test on the first day of the class.
